For the past six months, Luke has had to deal with being separated from the marine who has claimed his heart, Trent. But both soldiers are returning home from deployment, which means the lovers will have the opportunity to relive their steamy and naughty deeds.

Or not. Luke finds it difficult to come to terms with loving another man. But he quickly realizes that Trent dominates his thoughts, his dreams and his desires. Will he be able to push aside his fears and once again feel Trent in every way possible, or will the dread of embracing his lust for another man prove too much to handle?

This story is approximately 6300 words and is the final installment of the series.
