Pray Hard Love Hard and Never Give Up Sandra L Roache-Smith

One family's story of walking through years of testing and fire to the other side fills these pages. The author believes we are a society who hides our imperfections and problems from one another, leaving us vulnerable while struggling alone to make it all work. Her hope is to tell a story that moves people's hearts for neighbors, family members, and even strangers rather than driving through our lives and neighborhoods with windows closed returning to our garages and closing the doors behind us at the end of the day. For those walking through the fire, this story brings hope and courage to ask for help, and keep loving with Jesus' love when the world says give up.
