The Bride of Volundr: Legends of the Norse Gods: Loki & Thor: Book 1 Lorelai Falcon

Loki and Thor, the eternal brothers of Norse Legend, burst onto the page as you've never seen them before!

Inspired by the Poetic Edda, read the first exciting new adventure of the two immortal siblings...

A grotesque, fire-breathing beast is terrorizing the people of Álfheim, and brothers Thor and Loki are dispatched from Ásgard to deal with the problem.

But when they arrive in this formerly peaceful realm, they discover things aren't well. The disgusting creature terrorizing the villagers seems to have a story behind it - and arrogant King Völundr is more interested in his blushing new bride than dealing with the problem.

Thor and Loki each try to get to the bottom of the mystery in their own unique ways - Thor through the strength of his arm, and his mighty hammer Mjölfnir, and Loki through guile, illusion and seduction. Eventually, the trail leads them both to the underground layer of villainous King Níðuðr - where they uncover a truth that threatens to throw the realm into bloody conflict.

Faced with devastating consequences, Loki convinces Thor to do the unthinkable - and serve as the lynchpin of an erotic deception that could be the only means to secure peace in the realm.

A full-length, 25,000 novella, The Bride of Völundr is a beautifully crafted, highly erotic adventure featuring a new take on two of the world's most legendary and enduring mythical characters. Enjoy!
