An excellent reference of Mexican contemporary food recipes from famous chefs and local culture with Mexican Wine. As proud Mexicans who love our country's cuisine and wine, we decided to publish one of the first books to pair Mexico's wide range of foods with wines from its different regions. México de mis sabores, the title of this book, developed from a great many mouth-watering dishes and has taken shape as we rediscover our roots and join the past with the family gathered at the dinner table. It endures in the traditional flavors and our love of country. Consequently, we asked the Patronato Comedor Santa María foundation, famous for its culinary excellence, as well as a group of distinguished Mexican and American chefs, to contribute their creations. The idea is that no matter how close or far away we happen to be, whether we are Mexicans or foreigners, the textures and aromas of these paired recipes will evoke the Mexico that is so dear to our hearts.
