Relojes de hueso (Spanish Edition) David Mitchell

David Mitchell se consagra como una de las voces literarias más importantes de su generación con Relojes de hueso, una brillante fusión de géneros literarios donde da voz a un sinfín de grandes personajes, en un rompecabezas magistral hecho de hilos que se entrecruzan a lo largo de las décadas.

Después de una pelea con su madre, Holly huye de su hogar. Mientras se adentra en la campiña inglesa, una extraña se cruza en su camino y le solicita «asilo», una petición a la que la adolescente accede sin ser consciente de su significado. De repente, las extrañas visiones y voces que la acechaban de niña vuelven a perseguirla y alteran su mundo hasta adquirir un aura de pesadilla. A esto se añadirá la traumática desaparición de su hermano pequeño, un niño inquietante con una inteligencia inusual.

Pasarán muchos años antes de que Holly entienda qué sucedió ese fin de semana.

A ritmo de thriller, este prestidigitador de las letras británicas nos traslada a un mundo lleno de posibilidades a través de crisis familiares, entornos universitarios, conflictos bélicos, festivales literarios y microsociedades postapocalípticas, todo ello unido por la fantasía, la magia, la inventiva, el humor y el ingenio de un autor que, según la crítica, «marca el futuro de la ficción» (The Washington Post).

Finalista del prestigioso premio Man Booker, galardonada con el Fantasy World Award 2015 y uno de los mejores libros del año según The New York Times, Time, Entertainment Weekly, The Oprah Magazine, NPR y la American Library Association.
