Religious Diversity in Our Schools Deborah J. Levine

Is your community becoming a global village with diverse cultures & religions? Do you know what foods NOT to serve? What religious holidays NOT to schedule events on? What the right titles are for leaders of different faiths? Award-winning author Deborah Levine shares the case study of DuPage County, Chicago's technical corridor, and how it confronted the challenge of internationalization & diverse religions in its schools and in the workplace. Find out how your community and/or organization can Go Global by developing a religiously diverse "Harmonize Not Homogenize" environment.

Using the strategies and Quick Reference Religious Diversity Cards created by the DuPage Interfaith Resource Network, you can build a local-global bridge in your diverse school, market place, & community. Get your copy of this updated for the current (and age-old!) issues of religious diversity and see how chaplains, educators, law enforcement, business owners, and religious leaders navigated the impact of globalization and avoided culture clash.

Includes: Quick Reference Religious Diversity Cards for more than a dozen faith traditions:

- Sacred Space
- Sacred Time
- Sacred Language
- Sacred Food
- Death
