Dead Letter Depot: A Collection Of Short Stories To Kill Yourself To Scott Lefebvre

This is a collection of previously published and previously unpublished stories. Most of them more often than not ignored, abandoned, and rejected. Just like you. Stories about life and death and love and hate and after all is said and done, none of it matters. These stories are for every time you thought this time would be different, but it turned out exactly the same. For those times when nothing was beautiful and everything hurt. These stories are for insomniacs, lunatics, and manic-depressives. The homicidal, the suicidal, and the just plain crazy. For every time you wanted to kill someone and that someone was usually yourself. Perfect reading to wash down a mouthfull of pills with a nice glass of wine or while taking a warm bath and shaving your wrists. You may be alone and lonely but at least we can be alone together.
