LIFE AFTER PRISON You see before I went to prison I was ruthless, ambitious but conscious All about my money even if it meant non sense I was basically living the American Dream and cash ruled everything around me cream Came up in a unfit home and used that for an excuse Seen a lot of blood pools after the rounds let loose This was all done right before my eyes, the life I lived right before I found God I was selling drugs on the curve, went from a boy named Bug to a man called W.O.R.D THE W.O.R.D that is THE WISDOM OF RIGHTEOUS DOINGS An after the indictment I started writing under the influence The influence of not wanting to see others make the same mistakes I made Selling dope to the people thinking for the white man I aint finns ta slave So this book is like the after of what happened before And in the books to come you'll see theirs much more After this book you'll see how everything comes into place And why I went to prison and how I learned from my mistakes And by no means am I telling you to just rush and go to Church I'm telling you theirs not a just man who does good and don't sin on this earth An after these books you'll see how enigmatical I can be But after selling so much dope you'll see why a man like me unique You'll see the cause and effect of how I paused for a sec And still I continued living my life through a pencil Some my call me trife while others say I'm brilliant Because the things I write are based on real life events And through one He helped many So after you see all the books on the shelf you'll see why He wrote so many I admit some of the things I done wasn't right so I'm asking for forgiveness And here I stand before God writing MY LIFE AFTER PRISON.
