The Tree That Owns Itself: And Other Adventure Tales from Out of the Past Loretta Johnson Hammer, Gail Langer Karwoski

In THE TREE THAT OWNS ITSELF, authors Karwoski and Hammer have created a collection of lively historical fiction stories that introduces young readers to the most celebrated characters and fascinating events in Georgia history.

The twelve tales in the collection span the period of Georgia history - from the Revolutionary War through the present. From a spunky girl who fended off and captured British soldiers to the tale of Max, the paratrooping dog who accompanied his battalion on their missions during WWII, these stories will entertain young readers even as they educate. THE TREE THAT OWNS ITSELF brings historical characters to life in a way that will inspire the imagination of any child.
