In rural Georgia, an isolated camp called “Camp Liberty,” promised safety and security to displaced residents. The preppers were welcomed with open arms, but soon found themselves in the midst of a deranged militia. Now they have to escape without alerting their captors, as dissent is not tolerated and punishable by death. Meanwhile in Atlanta,

Terrance and his sons struggle to reunite with their prepper group as the city around them reaches the brink of madness. In Washington D.C. the President grapples with the resounding chaos engulfing the nation. But one man, a mysterious data analyst, knows who was behind the attacks and why, and has to get to D.C. before it's too late.

Everything comes together in this explosive continuation of this EMP survival series. Don't miss the final thrilling chapter of the epic first-rate Pulse saga, destined to be an all-time dystopian favorite.
