Alistair Westford has always lived in the shadow of his twin brother Richard. Ever since he was abducted as a child, Richard has gone on to live a glamorous and successful existence that has overshadowed Alistair's miserable and impecunious life. Then, after an unexpected accident, Alistair is catapulted into his brother's shoes. But is his newfound success and status all he expects, or is there something altogether darker at work?

A black comedy for anyone who's ever felt that they were second best.
