Murder for Old Times' Sake Margarite St. John

At 33, Lexie Royce has everything. She's beautiful, smart, and single again. As a self-made millionaire, her fame extends far beyond Fort Wayne. Best of all, she's just been reunited with her old boyfriend, Steve Wright. So what could go wrong? Plenty, as it turns out, starting with her fortune. Her family and financial advisor want a piece of it. And they'll do almost anything to get it. Lexie's romance with Steve doesn't go smoothly either. Not only is he reluctant to marry again, but two other women are fighting for his affections: a pretty young girlfriend, and Lexie's own executive assistant. When a sexual pervert begins stealing women's lingerie and then two women are murdered, Lexie suddenly realizes she's in danger too. In fear of her life, Lexie retreats to the safety of a fabulous but creepy lodge in the Upper Peninsula. Hearing that one of her stalkers left a suicide note confessing to the earlier murders, she begins to relax -- only to be lured into the killer's trap.
