Summer Vacation - Part V Dick B Long

Britt Holland is beginning to understand he is no longer just a boy in high school, but a young man headed to college. He feels there is a tug of war between his sister and Caitlin and he is in the knot—his sister is pulling him back into high school and Caitlin is pulling him into adulthood.

Adding to his anxiety, he has come to question who his parents really are after discovering a family secret in the lock box at the bank. He hasn't begun to come to grips with that mystery yet.

During the past few days, he has been drawn to an older woman, Caitlin, who he met his first day at the family beach vacation. He knows his mother will not like the fact that she is ten years older. Then there's the young girl his sister befriended—he feels a strange attraction for her pulling on him. He knows having four women tugging on a young man can lead to a lot of sexual trouble, and it already has...
