When disaster strikes, the only thing you can count on is yourself!

A winter trip in the remote Michigan wilderness seemed like the perfect way for Jayden to get to know his new foster family. Though he doesn't have much in common with siblings Maggie and Connor, he's hoping they'll get to like each other over snow mobile races and steaming mugs of cocoa.

But when the snow really starts to come down, the family van crashes and the three kids must go out into the bleak, white storm to search for help. Soon the wind is howling and night is starting to fall. Jayden, Maggie, and Connor will have to think fast, find shelter, watch out for bears, and somehow stay warm if they don't want to end up frozen in their tracks....

Michael Quintanar:

As a student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Disaster Strikes #3: Blizzard Night can make you sense more interested to read.
