We love quotes. We love reading them and using them in our own lives. We love thinking about quotes. We love sharing them with our friends, family and the people we know. Reading great inspirational quotes can be a very thought provoking task. Quotes can make us laugh, cry, become motivated or inspired and most importantly - think! The true measure of a powerful quote is one that stops us, makes us think and compels us to mull over it's meaning.

Our perceptions are heavily influenced by our experiences. Alone, we are confined to our own view of the world. But quotes help paint a much broader picture. Quotes are like transportation into someone else's mind, into someone else's life. In the process, you can learn something about life and the human existence. We learn not only about how others think but we learn about unique and different perspectives about life.
