What Happened After Acts? David Bercot

What happened after the events described in Acts? Where did the various apostles go? What became of the original church in Jerusalem? What challenges did the new Church face? Here is a look at what happened in the decades after the close of the Book of Acts.

It includes accounts of the martyrdoms of James, the half-brother of Jesus, as well as those of Peter and Paul. The author goes into graphic detail about the destruction of Jerusalem, showing how each element of Jesus' prophecies were fulfilled exactly as He had described. The reader will also learn about the spread of Christianity to Edessa and Persia, as well as the events in the last years of the Apostle John's life. The author does not include any legendary stories, but only the historical information available in reliable ancient sources.
