Why Am I So Happy - Cancer Can't Kill My Joy Wayne Rice

I was 42 years old, in perfect health and routine blood tests told me that I had cancer. Known for my ability to never tire during any physical feat; I was now in for the most physical battle of all, a bout with Cancer. How would I face this bout? Would I crumble under the pain and pressure of this bully? Or would I trust and depend on God?

I have a challenge placed before me and I choose to live happily with cancer. Pain, yes. Bad days, yes. Tears, yes. And.....God, yes, for I know He shall meet my every need. My hope lies in Heaven, therefore, I remain happy.

This disease they tell me I have will never kill my joy.
