I'll Never Let You Go Maria Marzitelli

They hardly ever come as rare as Patrick anymore; as firstborn and first among many things, he would find a place in everyone's hearts and make sure he stays there.

From the age of two, he streaked into life and made sure he had the details right, from his love of cars, trains, even such things as real estate. He simply took everything into heart, while showing a depth of kindness hardly approached by people above his age.

His ways made sure that his beloved parents, his girlfriend, Tessa, and all his friends must make their lives as if he would always be a part of them—even when the end has come for his own life. He would stay, because there is just no other way for him, even in the place he finds himself now.
