Antwone Devaux is a renowned writer who is actively working to complete his next book while dealing with chronic insomnia. Not a big deal for someone who enjoys taking long solitary walks at night to muse about his writing, his life and things that have been repressed for being too damaging to the heart. His general contentment, however, is disturbed when, one by one, three women who share a unique history or relationship with him, decide to reconnect. And while their company gives Antwone a break from his routine, a distraction from his writing, and even a reason to love, they each have a way of bringing out the emotional baggage Antwone carries around, baggage that may offer a glimpse on why he finds it hard to sleep.
